I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Message "God's Call to Follow" - Rev. Roy Morgan, Jr.

As we examine the call of the first disciples, we can follow in their footsteps and in the footsteps of those who have gone on before us. The same Savior who called His first disciples continues to call us today—not simply to believe in Him, but to follow Him, serve Him, and carry His work forward for generations to come.

All Saints' Sunday 2026

Remembering the Faithful Who Have Gone Before Us

All Saints' Sunday is a special time when we remember and give thanks to God for the faithful Christians who have gone before us. We celebrate their lives, the love they shared, and the lasting difference they made in our families, our church, and our community. Their examples of faith and service continue to encourage and inspire us today.

While we may miss their earthly presence, we rejoice in the promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ. Their faith reminds us that God's love reaches beyond this life and that our hope rests in Him.

Today, we honor their memory by continuing the journey of faith they helped prepare for us. May we follow their faithful example, serve Christ with gladness, and leave a legacy of love and faith for the generations yet to come.

Luke 5:1-11

English Standard Version

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

5 On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, 2 and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

3 Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. 4 And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

5 And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." 6 And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking.

7 They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."

9 For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, 10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.
And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men."

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.
